TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE.

General Post Office. Beyond the shipping quarter of the town, and parallel with it, runs the commercial quarter. On each side of this lies the densely populated Chinese quarter. Ten minutes' climb up the hillside we reach the second stratum of the town, and Government House and other public buildings are in this quarter. The General Post Office, a palatial building in which several other departments are accommodated, occupies a fine site.

I told some people
tonight that you
were the greatest
little boy in the world! How I would love to see you and your family. Love, Dad
